PETER E. SABESAN, PRINCIPAL COLDWELL BANKER COMMERCIAL HUNTER REALTY

PETER SABESAN

Co-founding principal of Coldwell Banker Commercial Hunter Phoenix, Sabesan has devoted his entire professional life to commercial real estate.

In a career spanning three decades, he has worked with many of the country's top landlords and has culled a reputation as a leading tenants' representative in New York City.

With a client roster that includes American Express, Allianz Insurance Company, Chase Manhattan Bank and the New York Mercantile Exchange, Sabesan's work has made a major contribution to commercial office landscapes in Midtown and Downtown Manhattan.

Sabesan's career began straight of college at Helmsley-Spear where he rose to the rank of director there before partnering with long-time Helmsley associate Richard Selig to launch The Hunter Realty Organization in 1997.

In January 2010, Hunter united with Phoenix Asset Management as a full-service New York flagship for Coldwell Banker Commercial.
